

Catholic Candle's List of Priests & Those Who Claim to be Priests

This list primarily focuses on whether there is any doubt concerning the validity of the ordination of a priest whom the faithful might encounter.

Note: Catholic sacramental theology requires that an ordination be treated as invalid if even the slightest reasonable doubt exists, concerning the validity of either the ordination or the ordaining bishop's consecration. See the analyses elsewhere in Catholic Candle, which demonstrate the inherent doubtfulness of conciliar ordinations and consecrations:

- <http://catholiccandle.neocities.org/faith/new-ordination-doubtful.html>
- <https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B49oPuI54eEGd2RRcTFSY29EYzg/view>
- <https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B49oPuI54eEGZVF5cmFvMGdZM0U/view>

Also, in the list below, Catholic Candle flags sedevacantist priests (or supposed priests) of which we are aware. Sedevacantism is a grave error and is schism. See this article analyzing the sedevacantist error: <https://catholiccandle.neocities.org/faith/against-sedevacantism.html>

This is not a list of “approved” priests. It is the beginning of a prudent investigation concerning a particular priest.

Fr. Patrick Abbet

From Switzerland. Ordained in 2002. Source: STAS.org website, where he was an SSPX seminary professor.

Fr. Stephen Abraham

As of April 2017, he lives in a house with Bishop Richard Nelson Williamson, in Broadstairs, England. There are serious problems with this SSPX-ordained priest. Stay away from him! If you have a serious practical reason to know more information, please contact Catholic Candle.

Fr. Albert Kallio, O.P.

Ordained in Winona in 1994 by Bishop Fellay. Source: 1994 Verbum.

Formerly a Dominican from the Traditional Dominican Friary in Avrille, France.

Note: He supports Menzinger's liberalism and the new SSPX supports him. There is further information which a person should read about him before associating with him. Contact Catholic Candle.

Rev. David Aldalur

Catholic Candle lacks specific information about his priestly ordination. However, we do know that he was ordained to the diaconate by Bishop Bernard Tissier de Mallerais. Source: Nov. 2006 Regina Coeli report.

He was “ordained” in the conciliar rite of “ordination”. Stay away from this man! There is more information which Catholic Candle could reveal if a person has a great practical need to know. Stay away from this man!

Fr. Rainier Becher (“Becker”)

On March 10, 2009, an SSPX priest who said he was “a particular friend of Father Becher”, emailed this message concerning Father Rainier Becher: “He is a Society priest, ordained by one of our bishops.” Also, Fr. Becher stated that he “entered the Seminary in Zaitzkofen, in 1992”. Source: SSPX Asia District Magazine, Apostle #55.

Fr. Gerard Beck

Ordained by an SSPX bishop. Catholic Candle has his group ordination card.

Father Denis Bedel

Catholic Candle lacks conclusive information about Fr. Bedel’s ordination but we believe he was ordained by an SSPX bishop. He was ordained June 27, 2003 and transferred to the SSPX mission in Kenya in June 2004. Source: <http://www.fssp.org/en/news-from-kenya-automatically-imported>

Father Belland

Priest from a Minnesota diocese, probably Minneapolis/St. Paul. He looked about 50 yrs old in 5-99. "Ordained" in the Novus Ordo in 1987 and was still under his conciliar bishop in 5-99. Fr. Belland told Catholic Candle unequivocally that he was conditionally re-ordained by Bishop Williamson.

Fr. Armando Beltrán

He is a priest formed and "ordained" in the conciliar church but was conditionally ordained by Bishop Williamson in May 2016, at Holy Cross Monastery. Source: 8-19-16 email to Catholic Candle, from Fr. Raphael, OSB, prior of St. Joseph's Monastery.

So-called "Father" John Berg

Superior General of the Society of St. Peter. Highly likely that the "bishop" who "ordained" him had a doubtful consecration, but Catholic Candle lacks specific information.

Fr. Hugues Bergez

Ordained in Ecône in 1996. Source: St. Aloysius Gonzaga Retreat House (Los Gatos) newsletter dated October 4, 2010.

Fr. Eugene Berry

Ordained by an SSPX bishop. Became a sedevacantist and was expelled from the SSPX about 1983. Source: April 2009 Regina Coeli report.

Father Ronald Bibeau (“Bee-bow”)

Former military chaplain; novus ordo ordinand; helper of SSPX for a long time (as of 2011); he was conditionally ordained by Bishop Williamson; all this information is from a Catholic Candle correspondent, who affirmed he had personal knowledge of Fr. Bibeau’s conditional ordination.

Fr. Josef Bisig

Former superior general of the Society of St. Peter. Offers the new mass regularly. Source: Catholic Family News interview “Father” Patrick Perez by Thomas A. Droleskey.

Father Galvin P. Bitzer

In an apparently genuine January 3, 1986 letter to Friends and Benefactors written by then-Father Richard Williamson, found on spxseminary.org, then-Father Williamson reports Fr. Bitzer’s ordination in La Reja on December 1, 1985, by Archbishop Lefebvre.

Also, there is apparently sound circumstantial evidence that Fr. Bitzer is a feeneyite. To confirm this, we emailed him and respectfully asked him whether he supports Fr. Leonard Feeney’s position on the impossibility of Baptism of Desire, etc. Fr. Bitzer did not respond. People should inquire further, if considering attendance at Fr. Bitzer’s Mass.

Fr. Edward Black

Native of Scotland, ordained in 1977 at Ecône. He was the District Superior of Australia. From <http://www.sspcx.com.au/priests.html>

Fr. Edward Blandon

From Colombia. Ordained by Bishop Bernard Fellay on December 23, 2006. Source: March 2007 Regina Coeli report.

Fr. Louis Bochkoltz

Apparently he is SSPX-ordained. Here is what is said about him in June 2012: He “finally arrived in March. He is a young priest originally from Belgium and ordained in 2009. He has served the Society of St Pius X in four districts in the space of 3 years, being first sent to Belgium, then to Africa, then to Australia.”

So-called “Father” Brian A. T. Bovee

Catholic Candle's best information is that he was so-called “ordained” in the conciliar church, probably in a diocese in Ohio, before coming to the Institute of Christ the King. At Catholic Candle's request, a friend of “Father” Bovee specifically asked him if he was conditionally ordained at any time after his conciliar ordination. “Father” Bovee sighed and then told his friend that he will only state that (he believes) there is no doubt regarding the validity of his ordination. We think his refusal to give a straight answer tells us all we need to know.

Fr. Michael Brown

Ordained June 12, 2015 in Winona by Bp. Tissier de Mallerais. Source: SSPX Winona ordination announcement.

So-called “father” Ronald Brown

He was about 51 years old in 2016. He was “ordained” June 29, 1989 in Montreal, Canada, using a hybrid mixture of the new and old rites of ordination. Because of the doubtfulness of this “ordination”, he was conditionally “ordained” June 17, 1992 by a Thuc-line “bishop” named “Mamistra”. Brown is not sedevacantist, as are most of the other “priests” and “bishops” of the Thuc-line. Catholic Candle considers Brown’s “ordination” to be doubtful and advises no Catholics to attend his “mass”.

Brown is married with two children who, in 1993, were ages 1½-years-old and four-years-old.

Source: The above information is from a March 14, 1993 interview he gave to a then-board-member of the Shrine of Christ the King, in Winfield, IL. This board member took notes and then read and explained his notes to Catholic Candle. Brown would not respond to Catholic Candle's 2016 polite request for information.

Subsequently, he has purportedly become entangled with the sedevacantists and has purportedly gotten himself “consecrated” as a “bishop”. Here is what a supposed eye-witness says: “On June 29, 2006 I was in attendance and personally witnessed the episcopal consecration of Bp. Buckley. Sadly, it was done by the hand of Ryan St. Anne Scott at the now defunct Holy Rosary Abbey - Galesburg, IL.” Source:<http://www.cathinfo.com/catholic.php?a=topic&t=21216&min=0&num=3>

Fr. Leo Carley

Catholic Candle’s best information (but lacking written documentation): He was 80 years old in 2013. His chapel is Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel near Akron Ohio. He also offers Mass near Wheeling, WV. He was ordained in 1958 and offers only the Traditional Mass. He considers it imperative that every conciliar ordinand be conditionally ordained by a traditional Catholic bishop.

Father Paul Dadamio

Catholic Candle lacks conclusive confirmation of facts, but we believe this to be true: Fr. Dadamio was a conciliar diocesan “priest” from Pennsylvania. About 2006, he attended the SSPX “House of Studies” for conciliar “priests”. The SSPX told him that he did not need conditional ordination. He later received conditional ordination by Bishop Williamson. Fr. Dadamio then became assistant pastor for Fr. Ronald J. Ringrose’s independent Traditional Catholic parish (St. Athanasius), in Vienna, Virginia, for a year or two. Fr. Dadamio left St. Athanasius church and went back to live with his parents. So-called “Father” Neville Luis Monteiro

It appears very likely that he was “ordained” after the new conciliar rite of ordination was promulgated and came into use. However, there is some conflict in the information about when he was “ordained”. The best information appears to be the 1992 Directory of the Archdiocese of Goa & Daman, which lists so-called “Father” Monteiro as having a date of birth of April 14, 1942 and lists him as “ordained” on April 20, 1969. Source: a Catholic Candle correspondent in India, who attends the traditional Mass offered by independent priest, Fr. James D'Souza. This correspondent informs us that Fr. D'Souza stated from the pulpit that Fr. D'Souza's own ordination “class” December 20, 1967, was the last class in India ordained using the traditional Catholic rite of ordination.

Alternate date and source for “Father” Monteiro's “ordination”: 1973. Source: a board member of the St. Pius V. shrine (in Lake Zurich, Illinois) and the parish's celebration of the 35th anniversary of “Father” Monteiro's “ordination” in 2008.

Catholic Candle lacks definitive information about his ordination. However, the brother of a Society of St. Peter "priest" informs us that "Father" Oppenheimer was in the indult Society of St. Peter's first "ordination" class, about 1988. He was almost-certainly "ordained" by a conciliar "bishop". We have no indication that he has been conditionally ordained.

Fr. Gabriel Tran, OSB

Ordained on June 19, 2009, in Winona, by Bishop Tissier de Mallerais. Catholic Candle was there and has his ordination card.

So-called “Father” Thai (pronounced “tie”) “Anton” Trinh

Vietnamese. Convert from the (false) conciliar church. A Catholic Candle correspondent reports that his local SSPX chapel announced on January 2, 2007 that “Father” Trinh was at the SSPX “House of Studies” and would be coming to offer “mass” for that SSPX chapel, in the near future. Catholic Candle does not know if “Father” Trinh has been conditionally ordained by the SSPX but does know (from its same correspondent) that “Father” Trinh refused (in 2007) to answer whether he was conditionally ordained.

A different Catholic Candle correspondent reports that “Father” Trinh told him personally that he was consecrated a supposed “bishop” by supposed “bishop” Francis Slupski.

Ordained by Bishop Bernard Tissier de Mallerais. Source: the Nov. 2006 Regina Coeli report.

Fr. Carlos Urrutigoity

Ordained by an SSPX bishop, in LaReja. Source: Summer 1991 Verbum. Fr. Urrutigoity founded the indult Society of St. John and was its first superior. He placed himself and the SSJ under so-called “bishop” Timlin of Scranton, PA. The SSJ was later suppressed by that diocese for gross unnatural impurity. If a person with a strong, practical reason to know more about him, Catholic Candle has much more information, which it will reveal only at need. Stay away from this man!

So-called “Father” Kevin Vaillancourt

Editor of The Catholic Voice, while it was published. He is a sedevacantist, as shown by his writing promoting this error. Catholic Candle possesses some of these writings. Catholic Candle has no specific information about his “ordination” but assumes that it was through a sedevacantist “bishop”.

Fr. Vianney Vandendaele

Frenchman. Ordained in Econe on June 29, 2012, by Bishop Bernard Fellay. Source: June 25, 2012 SSPX ordinations announcement.

So-called “bishop” Neal Webster

Catholic Candle’s best information about his is that he is a feeneyite, sedevacantist so-called “bishop” from the Thuc-line.

Fr. Jürgen Wegner

Studied in the SSPX seminaries of Zaitzkofen, Germany, and Ecône, Switzerland. Ordained in 1991. Source: September 1, 2017 Angelus Press email promoting him as one of its speakers for its Autumn 2017 conference.

So-called “Father” Joseph Welsh

Conciliar “ordained” so-called “priest” in England, who was still using the new mass as of Sept. 2011, but was meeting with SSPX priests and claiming he wanted to come to tradition. Source: SSPX priest in England, writing at that time.

Fr. William Thomas Welsh

Catholic Candle lacks specific details about Fr. Welsh’s ordination but is confident that he was ordained by an SSPX bishop. Fr. Welsh left the SSPX in about 1994. We have additional information which we don’t disclose here but would share with a person who had grave practical need to know.

Fr. Dawid Wierzycki

Ordained by an SSPX bishop on July 2, 2011 in Zaitzkofen. Catholic Candle has his ordination card.

Bishop Gerardo Zendejas

Ordained by an SSPX bishop in 1989, as Fr. Zendejas stated on 7-7-2015, to a Catholic Candle correspondent. Consecrated a bishop on May 11, 2017 by Bishop Richard Williamson, in Vienna VA. Source for consecration: Bishop Williamson announcement beforehand (in his weekly Eleison Comments) and contemporaneous pictures.

So-called “Father” Stephen Zigrang

Catholic Candle lacks specific information about so-called “Father” Zigrang. However, Catholic Candle correspondents have told us that he is a conciliar “ordinand” from the Houston/Galveston diocese. In January 2007, he was at the SSPX “House of Studies”. In May 2014, he was asked if he was conditionally ordained since he came to tradition, and he simply answered “no”.
